Excerpt: . . . 11 Mr. Chairman, we are making good progress on the high-risk list, and I am pleased that the Administration, at the highest lev-els, is involved in the process. Mr. Chairman, I want to thank you for holding this hearing. If I may go to one question, we are coming to a vote. Senator V. Yes, why dont you go ahead. OINOVICH KAKA Senator A. All right. Senator V. We have got some time left. I am going to OINOVICH try and see if we cant run this until about the end, and then we will leave and try and cast the second vote, because there are two votes, I think, if it is all right with you. Senator A. Mr. Johnson, thank you for your approach to ad-KAKA dressing the challenge. I can see that the OPM plan provides cer-tain goals and...
