Through Other Eyes: Developing Empathy and Multicultural Perspectives in the Social Studies (2nd Revised edition)

By Joan Skolnick, Nancy Dulberg, Thea Maestre

Pippin Publishing Corporation. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Through Other Eyes: Developing Empathy and Multicultural Perspectives in the Social Studies (2nd Revised edition), Joan Skolnick, Nancy Dulberg, Thea Maestre, What happens when children develop their capacities to think about how the world might look and feel through someone else's eyes? They build the foundations of multicultural and historical understanding, according to Joan Skolnick, Nancy Dulberg and Thea Maestre. Full of practical strategies and lesson plans, their book Through Other Eyes is brimming with clear and inspiring ideas for teachers eager to help their students develop an empathic and accurate understanding of history. Devoid of jargon, it employs key social studies themes and the tools of the historian to help students understand the perspectives of others in historically authentic and developmentally appropriate ways. The authors provide a curriculum model - adaptable to any curriculum context - of carefully constructed learning sequences they term the "Thinking-Feeling Spiral." Following this model, teachers can design standards-based lessons using primary sources, literature, writing and the arts. Students learn to understand the feelings of people in history and in the present who are different from themselves (empathize), explore how the world might look through their...

Reviews

An incredibly amazing ebook with perfect and lucid answers. It is written in basic terms and never difficult to understand. It's been written in an exceptionally basic way and it is only right after I finished reading this ebook in which it in fact modified me, affect the way I really believe.
