I am glad to see that our panel includes witnesses from their organizations that should be and are on the front lines of improving financial literacy. I look forward, Mr. Chairman, to hearing their testimony. Thank you for putting this together. Chairman C. Thank you, Ms. Woolsey. ASTLE We have two panels today. The first panel consists obviously of one person, and the second panel consists of more. We will have the panelists speak and then the members will have 5 minutes in which to ask questions and elicit answers from the panelists. The first panel consists of the Honorable Dan Iannicola, who is a deputy assistant secretary for financial education for the Office of Financial Institutions at the United States Department of Treasury. Prior to his current position, he served as special counsel to the Assistant Secretary and director of communications in the Department of Education's Office of Post-Secondary Education. Additionally, Mr. Iannicola has worked as a counsel for the May Department Stores Company as vice president and regulatory liaison for the May National Banks....
