We consider that the most important function of the teacher of physics is to build the logical and mechanical structure of the science; the logical structure mainly by lecture and recitation work, including a great deal of practice by the student in numerical calculation, and the mechanical structure of the science mainly by laboratory work. We believe that these two aspects of physics study should run along together. This text, however, is intended as a basis for the work of the class room. One difficulty in the teaching of physics is that the native sense of most men is incapable, without stimulation, of supplying the materials upon which the logical structure of the science is intended to operate. Those modern...
