Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Cecilius Calvert: Second Baron of Baltimore and First Proprietary of Maryland The teachers of every county should maintain an organization, and this can best be done through the plan of the County Teachers Association. Here teachers meet for interchange of views, to get better acquainted, to learn conditions in various sections of the county, to give the county superintendent an opportunity of coming in contact with his coworkers, and to give to the teachers themselves a chance to discuss ways and means for their own betterment professionally and financially. Whatever recognition the General Assembly has given our teachers in the matter of increased salaries has been brought about, to a very large extent, by teachers organizations. In our school system, the county is the unit, and the county association is naturally the unit in teaching organizations. If your county does not already have one, begin at once to organize. Let one-half of the meeting days be on Saturdays, and the other on school days. A New State Normal School Building is now the most urgent...
