A Leaf That Floats Upstream

By Alastair Batchelor

Createspace. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 314 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.7in. A Leaf That Floats upstream is a readable, straight from the shoulder Narrative Non-Fiction book which examines issues which constitute the threat that civilization is posing to the future of the Human Race and all life on Earth. Do we want to provide an environment and a society which will be safe and suitable for our children and those not yet born, or shall we allow arrogance avarice and apathy make the choice for us All around us the deterioration of the Eco-system and our environment is obvious, morality is at an all-time low and almost every country on the Planet is so burdened with debt that their citizens are being taxed out of existence. The institutions and organizations which form the basis for our society are out of control, are they working for us, or against us Are the people we appoint to look after our interests, to provide for our well-being, working for us or for themselves You dont have to look far to find the answer to that question. Everywhere you look; there is dissatisfaction as people begin...
