(John 3:18.) At the beginning, and again at the end, of the Ecclesiastical year, the Catholic Church ordains the reading of the Gospel on the Last and General Judgment. Her intention thereby is, no doubt, to remind us of this serious truth: that our aim at the beginning, and the end of all our thoughts, words, actions, and endeavors should be to prepare for the Last Day, and the coming of Jesus to judgment, by true penance and amendment of life, by self-denial and mortification. To this, we are also exhorted by St. Paul in the Epistle of this day, wherein he says to us: Now is the hour for us to rise from sleep. Let us cast off the works of darkness, and put on the armor of...
