Harbor House Law Press, 2014. Softcover. Book Condition: New. In this comprehensive, easy-to-read book, you will find clear, concise answers to over 200 frequently asked questions about assessments, evaluations, and tests. The goal of Wrightslaw: All About Tests and Assessments is to demystify the assessment process and make it less intimidating. You will learn: ? about psychological, academic, and neuropsychological tests and what these tests measure about selecting evaluators; ? how to request a special education evaluation and how to provide parental consent; ? about speech-language, physical and occupational therapy, processing, adaptive behavior, and functional behavior assessments; ? test terms and the important realities about tests and assessment; ? how small differences between tests can result in large differences in scores. Wrightslaw: All About Tests and Assessments. "is an easy to understand book that includes all the information you will need to fully understand your rights in the assessment process. This book should be on your 'must have' list if you have a child with a disability or provide services to them. Appropriate assessments are key ingredients to well-written IEPs." "Parents will find answers to all their questions in this book, even the questions they did not know enough to ask. I'm so glad you wrote in such detail about evaluation and tests. In Chapter 3, What do I need to know about subtest scores? ? Perfect!" "I love these Test Charts!".
